The presentation itself will take about 30-40 minutes...and I can answer questions at the end, so no longer than an hour.

I can accommodate whatever time on that date, my schedule is clear. Also, the training would consist of a slide show presentation so I would need a screen and a computer to plug in a USB stick. 7:30PM would work fine for me.

Good afternoon Sgt. Hernandez,

Yes, we are looking to have an active shooter training for our staff on Thursday, 6/2. Our in-service is scheduled to start at 6:30pm, but we will be starting off with some department announcements and presentations, so we were looking to have the training start at 7:30pm.

What is the time required for this particular training to make the necessary accommodations?

Thank you,
Gloria
